*“One generation shall praise thy works to another,
and shall declare thy mighty acts.”*
-Psalm 145:4

Dear Friend,

If you were to look up the word “legacy” in the dictionary, you would find many technical definitions describing wills, money, and special privileges given to someone because of an ancestor. At its core, a legacy is a gift. It may be the gift of a character trait, a monetary gift, or some other lasting impact that someone of an older generation leaves to those who come after.

With the passing of Dr. Mable Ruth Wray, our predecessor in ministry, we have all been contemplating the incredible gifts that she has left for us, as well as many others whose lives were changed by her bold stand for the Gospel. Dr. Wray did not have any children of her own, but the number of people that would consider her their spiritual mother are too many to count. How did she make such a lasting impact?

Mable Ruth studied the Gospel, spoke the Gospel, and lived the Gospel.

She had no reservations about loving every person that crossed her path. Her devotion to living with excellence for the sake of Christ inspired many. Can you and I claim the same commitment to the truth?

The first verse that comes to mind when considering legacy is Deuteronomy 6:5-7, which says, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.”

Pray in Real Time!

This summer, we are seeking to embrace a joint attitude of boldness in prayer and surrender to the living God. We invite you to join us by praying in real time for children and staff of CEF of Eastern PA as the Gospel goes out to our community this summer.

We are sending prayer requests in the form of texts and emails from those on the ministry field as they face the spiritual battles that come with presenting the Gospel to the children. We need YOU to fervently pray for the staff and children as they go into battle. Will you join us?

Provide your phone number or email address on the form at cefepa.net/summer or text the word PRAYER to (844) 519-1354 to receive real-time prayer requests from staff on the field. We can't wait to see the powerful things that God does this summer as a result of your prayers.

The best way to leave a lasting legacy for our children and others who come after us is to know, speak, and live the Word of God. Mable Ruth did this, and we have seen the lasting implications. You and I must commit to doing the same!

In Him,

Pastor Doug Williams
Executive Director
